On Wednesday, January 9, the Première L, BPCB Bac Pro and Seconde Européenne students enjoyed a field trip to Paris. Our first stop was at the world-famous Shakespeare and Company, situated in the Latin Quarter, by the banks of the Seine, just in front of Notre Dame.

This place exudes a baroque atmosphere that enchanted us, it is a unique, surreal shelter where the motto is « Literature ».

At once tiny, quaint and cozy, it harbours a huge variety of books for all ages and dating from all periods. We could have stayed hours in this universe and we would have loved to bring many copies at home. But their prices were so steep that we had the choice between buying books or saving our lunch money !

We had a great day and really enjoyed the visit of this open and friendly place !
